This is an online therapy platform that brings together psychologists and individuals seeking psychological support.

The startup is a project that started on August 2, 2021. The goal of this platform is to bring everyone who seeks psychological treatment, to the most reliable experts in the field. Furthermore, it aims to create a platform where...

- people of all languages, religions, races and sex can get support.
- they can reach experts quickly and easily
- they do not need an intermediary to make an appointment
- the treatment turns into an easy process for the client.

Currently, there are 16 active psychologists in the system of this startup project. This number can be increased quickly if desired, since there are many psychologists who want to get on the platform.

The market size of online therapy is currently 1.5 billion people in the world. Of this number, 15 million are in the accessible market and are actively using these services. This startup project aims at a market of 1 million in the first place. There are currently 232 registered clients in the system and 43 appointments have been scheduled. With these demo sessions, the system and appointment experience have been tested and improved.

Now, this team is getting ready to increase their momentum and scale the business to the global market by seeking 200.000 Euros of seed financing for the development of the system, marketing activities, mobile application development studies and innovative R&D studies. They want to become a leader in this market and secure our position by bringing innovations in this field.
